PURPOSE: To provide a five-day-a-week therapeutic program for impaired elderly persons (strokes, Alzheimer's disease, arthritis, etc.) which emphasizes helping people to stay in their own homes. Participants who need transportation, within certain geographical limits, are transported to and from the Center each day. Goals of participants are to prevent deterioration, sustain maximum self-sufficiency, regain lost function where possible, and encourage enjoyment of living despite handicaps. Occupational and recreational activities are provided, along with nursing evaluations, physical therapy when ordered by the physician, a hot noon meal and snacks, and family education.

SERVICES: Group social and recreational activities; nursing assessments and monitoring; physical therapy evaluations and exercises; occupational therapy; a regularly updated plan for each participant; hot noon meals and snacks; individual and group counseling; special meetings for family members; occasional outings; program enrichment by art-related activities.

FEES: $45/day, not including transportation. Private funds to adjust some fees. Sliding scale fee.

HOURS: 8:30 a.m.- 3:30 p.m., Monday-Friday.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS: Persons over 55 years of age who are mobile (including wheelchairs) but have health problems which can benefit from the friendly group setting and therapeutic program offered by the Center. Occasional exceptions are made to the age restriction for younger adults needing the service.

SUPERVISOR: Lisa Madell      lismad@oja.ok.gov

Debbie Sugg      debsug@oja.ok.gov

PURPOSE: To provide intake, probation and parole services to youth and their families in Cleveland County. Major referral sources include law enforcement, schools, parents, public and private agencies, and courts.

SERVICES: Intake is a mandatory pre-adjudicatory interview of a child and his/her parents, guardian or custodian to determine whether non-adjudicatory (pre-court) alternatives are available and appropriate, or whether the filing of a petition for court action is necessary.

The primary objective of probation is to deter the child (identified client) who has committed a delinquent act from committing other delinquent acts. In treating the child with family difficulties (INS), the goal of JSI is to determine the cause of his/her difficulty and provide treatment in order that the child may remain in the community. Parole services are provided to DHS custody youth who have been adjudicated delinquent and are currently placed in a community setting. Services are directed toward treatment of the problem as well as other issues affecting the child and family.

FEES: None

HOURS: 8:00 a.m.- 5:00 p.m., Monday-Friday.

PURPOSE: To link individuals with a wide variety of educational, cultural, business, personal, and recreational materials and services. A computer network, which covers the three-county Pioneer Library System, allows customers to search the library's collection, place a reserve on a favorite title, review what is checked out to them, or see if any fines are due. The new system, nicknamed "Explorer," also generates a telephone call to customers when a reserved book is available for pick-up. You can also use the public computer catalogs to search over 4000 magazines for articles written on a specific topic. A "dial-up" feature allows customers with a personal computer and a modem to search the library's collection from home, business, or school.

SERVICES: Library equipment like microcomputers, typewriters, audio and video cassette players, telecaption decoders, film and slide projectors, plus FAX and photocopy machines also are available for the public. Librarians help customers find information on a wide variety of subjects in person or by phone. In addition, services to homebound citizens are available upon request. Help is available for people who wish to improve their reading skills. The library also offers a special business reference section.

Assistance with taxes is also available 6 p.m. -9 p.m. between January and April.

CHILDREN: The library offers preschool story times to help introduce children to the wonders of books and stories. PURPOSE: The Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art is one of the finest university art museums in America. The 2000 bequest of the Aaron M. and Clara Weitzenhoffer Collection, the most important gift of art ever to an American public university, makes the museum one of the premier repositories of French Impressionist art in the Great Plains states, with works by Monet, Renoir, Degas Pissarro, Van Gogh, Gauguin, Toulouse-Lautrec, Bonnard, Vuillard, and others. The permanent collection's other strengths are twentieth-century American painting and sculpture, Native American art, contemporary art, ceramics, photography, Asian art and European graphics from the sixteenth century to the present, while the Richard H. and Adeline J. Fleischaker Collection, acquired in 1996, and the Thomas Collection, acquired in 2003 makes the museum a major destination for the study of the art of the Southwest. Several temporary exhibitions are mounted annually which explore the art of various periods and cultures. Guided tours are available, as well as educational programs such as lectured, symposia, films, and videos.
